RE: DUNN, Jerry W.
Docket No.: 2:94CR00027-001
REQUEST FOR RELEASE FROM
RESIDENTIAL REENTRY CENTER
(RRC) PLACEMENT

Dear Judge Van Sickle:

Mr. Dunn began his RRC placement on January 26, 2009, and since that time, has experienced serious medical issues (heart attack on or about February 26, 2009). He is currently under the care of a physician and his future ability to work is poor.

The purpose of this letter is to inform the Court that Mr. Dunn has experienced life changing events which would appear to make an RRC placement inappropriate at this time. The undersigned is also respectfully recommending that Mr. Dunn be released from RRC placement and be allowed to return to the community to better enable him to receive necessary medical services.

Mr. Dunn has completed a substance abuse evaluation and is scheduled to begin treatment within the next week. He has submitted an appropriate release plan, which was approved by the undersigned.

Therefore, the probation office would respectfully recommend that Mr. Dunn be released from the RRC program and be allowed to complete the remainder of his supervised release in the community, with all previously imposed conditions of supervised release to remain
